

Hilger Crystals Achieves ISO 9001:2015 Certification

May 8, 2018

Compliance Reflects Commitment to Quality Management

NEWTON, Mass., May 8, 2018 /PRNewswire/ -- Dynasil Corporation of America (NASDAQ: DYSL) today announced that its Hilger Crystals subsidiary of Margate, Kent, UK has achieved ISO 9001:2015 certification. Hilger is a leading manufacturer of synthetic crystals for the security, defense, and medical industries and specializes in custom developed scintillators and imaging arrays.

Achieving ISO 9001:2015 certification indicates that premium Quality Management practices are adhered to and a systematic approach to quality testing and processes is taken to ensure consistent customer satisfaction. This independent certification validates Hilger's commitment to quality and affirms that Hilger has thoroughly documented its quality processes while meeting the stringent qualifications for the global ISO 9001:2015 standard. Over a million organizations worldwide are independently certified, making ISO 9001 one of the most widely used management tools in the world today.

"This is an important milestone for Hilger and Dynasil," said Peter Sulick, Dynasil's Chairman, Chief Executive Officer and President. "Our customers rely on us for quality products and service and this certification demonstrates our rigorous quality standards and commitment to continually improving our business processes. Customers can be confident that we have a systematic approach for achieving customer satisfaction that delivers results."

"The ISO 9001:2015 certification illustrates Hilger's continued commitment to quality and service," said Jim Telfer, Hilger's Managing Director. "The ISO 9001:2015 standard is based on a number of quality management principles including a strong customer focus, the motivation and implication of top management, the process approach and continual improvement. Using ISO 9001:2015 helps ensure that customers get consistent, good quality products and services, which in turn brings many business benefits and sets out the criteria for a quality management system which has helped us define and clarify our organizational quality processes to better serve our customers throughout the world. These processes represent a set of principles that ensure a common-sense approach to managing business activities that builds upon our experience of more than 140 years of service to our customers."
